Munich, August 2007

Dear Colleague,

Please find enclosed the announcement of our international PhD program in molecular and cellular life sciences.

The International Max Planck Research School for Molecular and Cellular Life Sciences is jointly conducted by the Max Planck Institutes of Biochemistry, Neurobiology and Psychiatry, the Ludwig Maximilians University Munich and the Technical University Munich. The program, covering the disciplines of biochemistry, cell biology, molecular medicine, neurobiology and structural biology, offers a research oriented comprehensive training to excellent doctoral students from all over the world.

We would greatly appreciate if you could communicate this announcement to interested students and have the poster displayed at your departmental bulletin board.

Sincerely, yours

Prof. Dr. F.-Ulrich Hartl
